PASTOR'S COMMENTS

Borrowed from Paul Turner

Where Love Comes From

Who can explain love? One day you meet someone, and your heart is filled with a love you never knew was in there. Where does it come from? How did it get there? What prompted it to come out? Why does it feel this way?

Love warms us like nothing else. It inspires us to be good to others—and not just to the person we love. The love we have for one person is so great that it spills out in our actions and attitudes toward others. You become a more loving person to all because you became a loving person toward one.

Love comes from God. God is love. God loved us first before we loved any other person and before we loved God. John writes, "Love is of God; everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God." When we love someone—whether or not we realize it—we are experiencing God. God loves first.

Some people have another experience of God. They imagine God as an angry, authoritarian figure. Or they go to church and find God—well, boring. John suggests the problem might not be with God. It might be with us. "Whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love."

It takes time to get to know God. But if we take time, we will experience love. Then we'll know where love comes from.

Fr. John

I would like to thank all of our Teachers who answered the call this past year to the children of the St. Robert’s community. Without you there would be no CCD program.

We still need teachers for next year, remember (“Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and decay destroy, and thieves break in and steal. But store up treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor decay destroys, nor thieves break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be.) This includes your Faith, it’s supposed to be passed on. God Bless

All around the world people are looking for meaning and finding it in strange, even destructive places. The world needs men and women who are so in love and so convinced of the truth that they cannot help but share it with others in word and deed, that they cannot help but make Christ present in the world. More than anything else, if what we do enables us to live with evangelical zeal for the sake of the world, we just might be doing what we are called to do.

Listen with ears, see with the eyes of God.

Prayer for the Day

I pray that I may be in the stream of goodness shown to us by Christ. I pray that I may be on the right side, on the side of all that is true and good in the universe.

Meditation for the Day

In Life there are two paths, one up and one down. We have been given free will to choose either path. We are captains of our souls to this extent only. We can choose the good or the bad. Once we have chosen the wrong path, we go down and down, eventually to death. But if we choose the right path, we go up and up, until we come to the resurrection day. On the wrong path, we have no power for good because we do not choose to ask for it. But on the right path, we are on the side of good and have all the power of God's Spirit behind us.
